The Plumber Who Took Plum.
"You're wanted," said the small boy. "Who wants me?" demanded the plumber.
"No. 137—the house you have just come from."
"Do you think I can work all hours of the day?" retorted the plumber.
"You'd better come," persisted the small boy stoutly, "or it will be too late. Ma's got hysterics, and Pa's gone nearly mad, and—"
"Look here, sonny, asked," the plumber, "What's up?"
"Well, I think you've connected the wrong pipes, or something," replied the boy. "Anyhow the chandelier in the parlor is spraying like a fountain, and the bathroom tap's on fire."
